OPA Night to St. George

On May 5, 2018 we celebrated our Patron Saint with a dance. What a wonderful evening dancing to the music of The Salonica Boys. The twenty-five to thirty youngsters along with parents and guest danced till the end. A tribute to all.

I would like to thank Liz, Maria and John, Louise, George, Marilyn, Steve, Eva, Tom and Carol, Toula, Joyce, and Dan. They contributed their time with serving food, drinks and giving food donations to make this night a successful evening.

With Great Appreciation, John Stavropoulos

The Epistle Reading – Sunday, May 20, 2018

You are blessed, O Lord, God of our forefathers.
For you have always dealt righteously with us.

The reading is from the Acts of the Apostles (20:16-18, 28-36).

In those days Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called to him the elders of the church. And when they came to him, he said to them:

"You yourselves know how I lived among you all the time from the first day that I set foot in Asia. Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you guardians, to care for the church of the Lord which he obtained with his own blood. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among yourselves will arise men speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish everyone with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. I coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me. In all things I have shown you that by so toiling one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

And when he had spoken thus, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

The Gospel Reading - Sunday, May 20, 2018

THE GOSPEL READING: SUNDAY OF THE HOLY FATHERS

The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. John (17:1-13).

At that time, Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify thy Son that the Son may glorify thee, since thou hast given him power over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom thou hast given him. And this is eternal life, that they know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. I glorified thee on earth, having accomplished the work which thou gavest me to do; and now, Father glorify thou me in thy own presence with the glory which I had with thee before the world was made.

"I have manifested thy name to the men whom thou gavest me out of the world; thine they were, and thou gavest them to me, and they have kept thy word. Now they know that everything that thou hast given me is from thee; for I have given them the words which thou gavest me, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from thee; and they have believed that thou didst send me. I am praying for them; I am not praying for the world but for those whom thou hast given me, for they are thine; all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name, which thou has given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name, which thou hast given me; I have guarded them, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
