Hymns Chanted Following the Small Entrance

Resurrection Hymn in the Plagal of the First Tone
Χριστὸς ἀνέστη ἐκ νεκρῶν, θανάτῳ θάνατον πατήσας, καὶ τοῖς ἐν τοῖς μνήμασι, ζωὴν χαρισάμενος.

Christ is risen from the dead, by death trampling down upon death, and to those in the tombs He has granted life.

Hypakoe Hymn in the Fourth Tone
Προλαβοῦσαι τὸν ὄρθρον αἱ περὶ Μαριὰμ, καὶ εὐφοῦσαι τὸν λίθον ἀποκυλισθέντα τοῦ μνήματος, ἥκουν ἐκ τοῦ Ἁγγέλου. Τὸν ἐν φωτὶ αἰδίῳ ὑπάρχοντα, μετὰ νεκρῶν τί ζητεῖτε ὡς ἀνθρώπων; βλέπετε τὰ ἐντάφια σπάργανα· δράμετε, καὶ τὰ κόσμων κηρύξατε, ὡς ἤγερθη ὁ Κύριος, θανατώσας τὸν θάνατον· ὅτι ὑπάρχει Θεὸς Υἱός, τοῦ σάρξωντος τὸ γένος τῶν ἀνθρώπων.

When the women with Mary had come before dawn, and they found that the stone had been rolled away from the sepulcher, they heard from the Angel, "Why do you seek among the dead, as a mortal man, the One who exists in everlasting light? See the grave clothes in the sepulcher. Run and proclaim to the world that the Lord has risen and put death to death; for He is the Son of God who saves the human race."

Seasonal/Kontakion Hymn in the Plagal of the Fourth Tone
Εἰ καὶ ἐν τῇ κατήλθες Ἀθάνατε, ἀλλὰ τοῦ ἄδου καθεῖλες τὴν δύναμιν· καὶ ἀνέστης ὡς νικητής, Χριστὲ ὁ Θεὸς, γυναῖξι Μυρωφόροις φθεγξάμενος, Χαίρετε, καὶ τοῖς σοῖς Ἀποστόλοις εἰρήνην δωρούμενος, ὁ τοῖς πεσοῦσι παρέχων ἀνάστασιν.

Though You went down into the tomb, O Immortal One, yet You brought down the dominion of Hades; and You rose as the victor, O Christ our God; and You called out "Rejoice" to the Myrrh-bearing women, and gave peace to Your Apostles, O Lord who to the fallen grant resurrection.
SCRIPTURE READINGS

Acts 1:1-8

In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God. And while staying with them he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me, for John baptized with water, but before many days you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?" He said to them, "it is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth."

Πραξείς 1:1-8

Τὸν μὲν πρῶτον λόγον ἐποιησάμην περί πάντων, ὥς Θεόφιλε, ὃν ἦρεται ὁ Ἰησοῦς ποιεῖν τε καὶ διδάσκειν, ἃχρι ἢς ἡμέρας, ἐντειλάμενος τοῖς ἀποστόλοις διὰ πνεύματος ἀγίου οὗς ἔξελέξατο, ἀνελήφθη· οίς καὶ παρέστησαν ἐαυτὸν ἐκεῖνα μετὰ τὸ παθεῖν αὐτὸν ἐν πολλοῖς τεκμηρίοις, δι’ ἡμερῶν τεσσαράκοντα ὅπτανόμενος αὐτοῖς, καὶ λέγων τὰ περὶ τῆς βασιλείας τοῦ θεοῦ. Καὶ συναλίζομενος παρήγγειλεν αὐτοῖς ἀπὸ ἱεροσολύμων μὴ χωρίζεσθαι, ἀλλὰ περιμένειν τὴν ἐπαγγελίαν τοῦ πατρὸς, Ἡν ἡκούσατε μου· ὅτι ἰδικής μὲν ἐβάπτισεν ὕδατι, ὑμεῖς δὲ βαπτίσθησθε ἐν πνεύματι ἄγιῳ ὡς μετὰ πολλὰς ταύτας ἡμέρας. Οἱ μὲν οὖν συνελθόντες ἐπηρώτων αὐτὸν λέγοντες, Κύριε, εἰ ἐν τῷ χρόνῳ τούτῳ ἀποκαθιστάνεις τὴν βασιλείαν τῷ Ἰσραήλ; Ἐπεξεν δὲ πρὸς αὐτούς. Οὐκ ὑμῶν ὑστάν γνώναι χρόνους ἢ καιροὺς οὗς ὁ πατὴρ ἔθετο ἐν τῇ ἰδίᾳ ἐξουσίᾳ. Αλλὰ λήψεσθε δύναμιν, ἐπελθόντος τοῦ ἀγίου πνεύματος ἕρ’ ὑμᾶς· καὶ ἔσησθε μοι μάρτυρες ἐν τῇ ἱερουσαλήμ, καὶ ἐν πάσῃ τῇ ἱσοδαίᾳ καὶ Σαμαρείᾳ, καὶ ἐως ἐσχάτου τῆς γῆς.
John 1:1-17

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God; all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father. (John bore witness to him, and cried, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.'") And from his fullness have we all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Iωαννην 1:1-17

Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν Θεόν, καὶ Θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος. Οὗτος ἦν ἐν ἀρχῇ πρὸς τὸν Θεόν. Πάντα δι’ αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο, καὶ χωρὶς αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο οὐδὲ ἐν ὁ γέγονεν. Ἐν αὐτῷ ἦν, καὶ ἦν ὁ φῶς τῶν ἀνθρώπων. Καὶ τὸ φῶς ἐν τῇ σκοτίᾳ φαίνει, καὶ ἡ σκοτία αὐτὸ ὑπὸ κατέλαβεν.

Ἐγένετο ἀνθρώπως ἀπεσταλμένος παρὰ Θεοῦ, δόμομα αὐτῷ Ἰωάννης· οὗτος ἦλθεν εἰς μαρτυρίαν, ἵνα μαρτυρήσῃ περὶ τοῦ φωτός, ἵνα πάντες πιστεύσωσι δι’ αὐτοῦ. Οὐκ ἦν ἐκείνος τὸ φῶς, ἀλλ’ ἵνα μαρτυρήσῃ περὶ τοῦ φωτός. Ἡν τὸ φῶς τὸ ἀληθινὸν, ὁ φωτίζει πάντα ἀνθρώπων ἐρχόμενον εἰς τὸν κόσμον. Ἐν τῷ κόσμῳ
Καὶ ὁ Κύριος σάρξ ἐγένετο καὶ ἐσκίνωσεν ἐν ἡμῖν, καὶ ἔθεασάμεθα τὴν δόξαν αὐτοῦ, δόξαν ὡς μονογενοῦς παρὰ πατρός, πλήρης χάριτος καὶ ἀληθείας. Ἰωάννης μαρτυρεῖ περὶ αὐτοῦ καὶ κέκραγε λέγων. Οὕτως ἦν ὁ ἐκ πάνω, ὁ ὁπόσῳ μοι ἔρχομενος ἔμπροσθένυ τούτου γέγονεν, ἵνα πρῶτός μου ἦν. Καὶ ἐκ τοῦ πληρώματος αὐτοῦ ἡμεῖς πάντες ελάμβαμεν, καὶ χάριν ἀντί χάριτος· ὅτι ὁ νόμος διὰ Μωϋσέως ἐδόθη, ἡ χάρις καὶ ἡ ἀλήθεια διὰ Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ ἐγένετο.

The Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ
Acts 1:1-8 & John 1:1-17

Yesterday I was crucified with Him; today I am glorified with Him. Yesterday I died with Him; today I am made alive with Him. Yesterday I was buried with Him; today I am raised up with Him... Let us become like Christ, since Christ became like us. Let us become Divine for His sake, since for us He became Man. He assumed the worse that He might give us the better. He became poor that by His poverty we might become rich. He accepted the form of a servant that we might win back our freedom. He came down that we might be lifted up. He was tempted that through Him we might conquer. He was dishonored that He might glorify us. He died that He might save us. He ascended that He might draw to Himself us, who were thrown down through the fall of sin. — St. Gregory the Theologian (4th century)

EXPLORE TOGETHER:

Visit the Cemetery—Take time today or this week to stop by the cemetery. Walk through as a family singing “Christ is risen!” with your Pascha candles lit. If you have loved ones buried there, take flowers for their grave. This was a tradition in old Russia on Pascha. The priest would walk through the cemetery with the choir and altar boys singing “Christ is risen” and greeting the families who stood by their loved ones’ graves. What a beautiful way to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord with our loved ones who have departed this life.

Bringing the Light Home—After Pascha services, plan on bringing the light of the Resurrection home. Purchase one of the five-day candles from your parish and light it with the Pascha flame as you leave the church. Keep the flame lit during Bright Week at your family iconostasis. Gather there as a family each day to pray the Paschal Hours and sing “Christ is risen.” Visit www.goarch.org for information about the Resurrection and resources to guide your family’s spiritual development.

Before church next week, read the scripture passages for the Sunday of Thomas

ΚΑΤΗΧΗΤΙΚΟΣ ΛΟΓΟΣ ΙΩΑΝΝΟΥ ΧΡΥΣΟΣΤΟΜΟΥ

If any man be devout and loveth God, let him enjoy this fair and radiant triumphal feast! If any man be a wise servant, let him rejoice entering into the joy of his Lord. If any have laboured long in fasting, let him how receive his recompense. If any have wrought from the first hour, let him today receive his just reward. If any have come at the third hour, let him with thankfulness keep the feast. If any have arrived at the sixth hour, let him have no misgivings; because he shall in nowise be deprived therefore. If any have delayed until the ninth hour, let him draw near, fearing nothing. And if any have tarried even until the eleventh hour, let him, also, be not alarmed at his tardiness.

For the Lord, who is jealous of his honour, will accept the last even as the first. He giveth rest unto him who cometh at the eleventh hour, even as unto him who hath wrought from the first hour. And He showeth mercy upon the last, and careth for the first; and to the one He giveth, and upon the other He bestoweth gifts. And He both accepteth the deeds, and welcometh the intention, and honoureth the acts and praises the offering.

Wherefore, enter ye all into the joy of your Lord; receive your reward, both the first, and likewise the second. You rich and poor together, hold high festival! You sober and you heedless, honour the day! Rejoice today, both you who have fasted and you who have disregarded the fast. The table is full-laden; feast ye all sumptuously. The calf is fatted; let no one go hungry away. Enjoy ye all the feast of faith: Receive ye all the riches of loving-kindness.

Let no one bewail his poverty, for the universal Kingdom has been revealed. Let no one weep for his iniquities, for pardon has shown forth from the grave. Let no one fear death, for the Saviour’s death has set us free. He that was held prisoner of it has annihilated it. By descending into Hell, He made Hell captive. He embittered it when it tasted of His flesh. And Isaiah, foretelling this, did cry: Hell, said he, was embittered when it encountered Thee in the lower regions.

It was embittered, for it was abolished. It was embittered, for it was mocked. It was embittered, for it was slain. It was embittered, for it was overthrown. It was embittered, for it was fettered in chains. It took a body, and met God face to face. It took earth, and encountered Heaven. It took that which was seen, and fell upon the unseen. O Death, where is thy sting? O Hell, where is thy victory? Christ is risen, and thou art overthrown! Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen! Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice! Christ is risen, and life reigns! Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave. For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and dominion unto ages of ages. Amen.

OUR SAVIOR HAS CONQUERED DEATH

Who is the greatest conqueror that ever lived? Some may say Caesar, Alexander the Great or Napoleon. But all are wrong. These men weren’t even worthy to be called privates when compared to the greatest of all conquerors. For the greatest of all is Death.

Death carries a black flag and he takes no prisoners. If God did not continuously create new life, this world of ours would long ago have become a lifeless planet. Generals and kings sometimes fell back and surrender some of their gains; but not so with Death. What a cruel conqueror he is! His palace is a huge space filled with dust and bones.

But the Resurrection of Christ tells us that this greatest of conquerors has himself been defeated. Death has been slain. Death has been trampled down, as we sing this day. Death has been defeated. Life has come to the land of the dead.

This is the message of the FEAST OF FEASTS. This is the news of Pascha. This is precisely the core of the Christian religion; this is precisely why it has prevailed through the centuries.

The Orthodox icon of the Resurrection profoundly tells the meaning of this victory of Christ over man’s archenemy. The icon does not simply portray a Risen Figure at the empty grave; rather it shows Him entering into the Enemy Camp, the very abode of the dead. There he smashes the chains and locks of the entombed. He makes His way to the very pit of Hell, and once there grasps the first-fruits of Death, Adam and Eve, freeing them from the curse of sin.

We all have to die, to be sure, but the sting of death has been removed. We die in the knowledge that we shall rise again; we die with the words of Christ resounding in our minds: “Because I live, you shall live also.”

Christ is risen!

Have you ever read a really great book...and then read a sequel to it, too? It’s wonderful when the story continues!

Today, we say, “Christ is risen!” and we hear the gospels about how Jesus’s disciples found the empty tomb. But what happened next? Well, now we can read ahead. The story doesn’t stop there, does it?

In the Bible, we can find eleven stories about the risen Lord. Eleven stories about what happened next! One of the best stories tells about how Jesus appeared to two of His disciples. They were walking to a nearby town, and they were very sad, because Jesus had died and had left them. While they were walking, Jesus came and walked with them! (But they didn’t know it was Jesus.) Our Lord explained the parts of the Bible to them—the parts in the Old Testament that showed what was going to happen. Then they had dinner together, and when Jesus broke bread with them, they knew it was the Lord!

Then the disciples were just overjoyed to know that Christ had really risen! They said, “Didn’t our hearts burn within us, while He talked with us?” Today, and every day, we can let our hearts burn with love for the Lord. We can be overjoyed too that Christ has really risen!

PASCHA
AROUND THE WORLD

Of course, you know what today is! It is Easter, Pascha, the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ! You probably have big plans for a big party. That’s because, as Christians, we celebrate this day more than any other!

We all have our own traditions, but would you like to know how Orthodox Christians in other countries celebrate, too?

But the best way to celebrate is by going to church, singing together the beautiful “Christ is risen” hymn!

In Jerusalem, thousands of people crowd around the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, the spot of Christ’s tomb. The people receive the “Holy Fire” there. Try to find out more about this miracle that happens every year!

In Ukraine and Russia and other countries in Eastern Europe, Orthodox Christians bring to the church beautiful Easter baskets full of fancy breads, eggs, and other foods. The priest blesses the baskets, and then the parties can start!

In Greece and Cyprus, most families celebrate this glorious day by roasting lambs on a grill or a spit that turns around and around to cook it.

In some places, you might also find people celebrating with big bonfires!

And in the United States, lots of Orthodox Christian kids come to the Agape vespers on Sunday afternoon. Lots of churches hold an Easter Egg hunt afterwards to celebrate!

We celebrate Pascha (Easter) today, April 16th!
Come, receive the Light!
PATRIARCHAL ENCYCLICAL

FOR HOLY PASCHA

PROT. NO. 221

Most honorable brother Hierarchs,

Dearly beloved children,

Having arrived with God’s grace at the all-saving Resurrection of the Lord, through which the power of death was abolished and the gates of paradise were opened to the entire human race, we address to all of you our paschal greetings and heartfelt wishes, as we proclaim the cry “Christ is Risen” that gives joy to the world.

In all of its dimensions, the life of the Church is invigorated by the ineffable joy of the Resurrection. The “experience of resurrection” is witnessed in the labors of the Saints and Martyrs of our faith, as well as in the liturgical and sacramental life, the proclamation of the Gospel “to the ends of the earth”, the devotion and spirituality of the faithful, their sacrificial love and Christian conduct, but also in their expectation of a world where “death will no longer exist, nor will there be mourning, wailing or suffering” (Rev. 21,4).

In and through the Resurrection, everything lies in a state of motion toward perfection in the Kingdom of God. This eschatological drive has always provided Orthodox Christians in the world with dynamism and perspective. Despite the claims of the opposite, as a result of the eschatological orientation of its life, the Church never compromised with the presence of evil in all its expressions in the world. Nor did it deny the reality of pain and death. Nor again did it ignore the ambiguity of human affairs. And finally, it never considered the struggle for a more just world as something foreign to its mission.

Still though, the Church always knew that pain and the cross are not the ultimate reality. The experiential quintessence of the Christian life is the conviction that, through the Cross and through the “narrow gate”, we are led to the Resurrection. This faith is reflected in the fact that the core of church life, the Divine Eucharist, is essentially linked with the Resurrection of Christ. In the Orthodox tradition, as the late Metropolitan John of Pergamon emphasizes, the Divine Eucharist “is filled with joy and light ... because it is not grounded in the Cross and an idealization of passion, but in the Resurrection as the transcendence of the passion of the Cross”1. The Holy Eucharist transports us to Golgotha not so that we may remain there, but so that we may be led through the Cross to the everradiant glory of the Kingdom of God. The Orthodox faith is the overcoming of the utopian salvation “without the Cross” and of the existential shipwreck of the Cross “without the Resurrection”.

Our participation in the Resurrection of Christ through the sacrament of the Church is on the one hand a tangible abolition of every utopianism and of the false paradise promising unimpeded self-indulgence, while at the same time a definitive transcendence of hopeless self-enslavement in supposed unsurpassable negativity, because the Cross of Christ gives birth to the Resurrection, to the “endless delight”, to “the enjoyment of eternal glory”. The annihilation of death through the Cross and Resurrection of our Savior elevates our life to its divine-human essence and its heavenly destiny.

In Christ, we know and live that the present life is not our entire life, that our biological death does not constitute an end or obliteration of our existence. The biological boundaries of life do not define its truth. After all, the sense that life is an irreversible “journey toward death” leads to existential impasses, to depression and nihilism, to indifference for what truly matters in life. Science, and financial or social progress are unable to offer an essential solution or outlet. Christians are “those who have hope” (1Thess. 4,13), who expect the coming Kingdom of the Father and Son and Holy Spirit as a final reality, as the fullness of life and knowledge, as the fulfillment of joy, not only for the coming generations but for the entire human race from the beginning to the end of the ages.

This vision of history and eternity, the resurrectional nature of Orthodox faith, ethos and culture—namely, the unquestionable fact that the great miracle of Truth is only revealed “to those who venerate the mystery in faith”—is what we are called to witness today within a civilization that rejects the Transcendent and in the context of manifold reductions of the spiritual identity of human existence.

We give glory in chant, hymn and spiritual song to the Lord who rose from the dead and shines eternal life upon all. We participate with joy in “the feast that is common to all”. And we beseech the all-powerful, all-wise and all-merciful Maker and Redeemer of all to bring peace to the world and grant all His saving gifts to humankind, so that His all-honorable and majestic name may be glorified and blessed, now and always and to the ages of ages. Amen!

Who will roll away the stone for us? (Mark 16:3)

My beloved sisters and brothers in the Risen Lord,

We have finally arrived at the mystery of mysteries, and we approach the Tomb with the holy Myrrh-bearing Women. With them we ask: “Who will roll away the stone for us?” The guards have scattered, the garden is empty, and we have brought all our potions and ointments to complete His anointing for death. But He is the Anointed One — the Christ — and He has no need of any anointing. He has no need of the stone being rolled away in order to leave death behind. As the young man said to them when they went inside: “He is risen! He is not here!” So, then, why was the stone rolled away?

My beloved Christians, the stone is rolled away in every telling of the story, but not so that the Lord can emerge, but so that we might submerge. The tomb is opened so that we might enter and die to ourselves — to our egos and selfishness. And then we may say, as is chanted in the Paschal Liturgy: “Yesterday I was buried with you, O Christ; and today, I arise by Your Resurrection” (Ode 3). The tomb is our place of transformation. The tomb is the very center of our hearts, where we can fulfill the ancient saying: “If you die before you die, then you won’t die when you die.”

Therefore, dear brothers and sisters, let us not ask “who will roll away the stone for us?” Let us make the effort to roll it back ourselves! God will send His Angels to help us if we are struggling. But it is within the tomb of dying to ourselves, and dying to this world, that we are reborn in the Resurrection. The stone is heavy, laden with our sins and our heartbreaks, but God forgives all and asks us to do the same. Forgiveness is the power that lifts the stone and paves our way to love. There is a very real resurrection to be had in this life, which leads to life everlasting. The arising in our hearts of love, compassion, and mercy for everyone and everything is the sign that we are truly the children of the Resurrection. May this Pascha reveal to you this mystery of mysteries — this gateway to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ.
